SING PRAISES TO THE LORD.....

Tell the nations what He has done. Psalm 9:11

From Dec. 25 to June 9, the Christian calendar marks the five most important events in our Christian faith. Each event is an essential component for our Christian belief.

The first of these events, the Incarnation, marks the redemptive entrance of God into human life as true man. (Christmas just passed)

The second event marks the means by which God could remain just, yet justify guilty men – the Atonement. (thru suffering and death of Jesus to wipe away our sins)

The third event, the Resurrection, demonstrated that man's three great enemies had been dealt their death blow – death, Satan, and sin.

The fourth event, the Ascension, showed that the Father had accepted the atoning work of the Son (Jesus) and truly was glorified.

The fifth event – Pentecost, assures us that the Holy Spirit has returned to help us with God's work in the world, the church, and in each individual believer.

It is important to recognize these events as they occur each year, to appreciate their meaning and give thanks for each one, because without them, there would be no Christian life on earth. Our faith is a test of our belief in these events and God's promise of eternal salvation.

A sixth event is still future; the Second Coming of Jesus for all who believe.

HALLELUIAH,

HALLELUIAH,
HALLELUIAH,

HALLELUIAH,
HALLELUIAH!!

HALLELUIAH,
